

Website Accessibility Statement

Datlas S.p.A. is committed to making its website accessible and usable by as many people as possible, in accordance with Italian Law No. 4 of 9 January 2004.

This accessibility statement applies to datlasgroup.com.

The website has been designed and developed with reference to the accessibility principles and criteria set out in the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG) 2.1, Level AA. Particular attention has been paid, among other aspects, to content readability, keyboard navigation, the semantic structure of pages and interface adaptability.

Accessibility Status

Partially Compliant

Automated and manual checks were carried out during the design and development process. These checks confirmed substantial alignment with the adopted accessibility criteria, while identifying a limited number of deviations, primarily concerning specific visual contrast parameters.

Datlas continues to assess and improve the website, with the aim of progressively enhancing its accessibility and addressing any issues identified.

Preparation of the Accessibility Statement

This statement was prepared on 28 September 2026.

The information contained in this statement is based on an assessment carried out by a third party.

Feedback

Please email marketing@datlasgroup.com, providing the information needed to identify the measures to be taken to improve the accessibility of the website.
